The screenshot shows a web browser window with the Brilliant.org website. The browser's address bar displays the URL `brilliant.org/courses/computer-science-essentials/algorithmic-thinking-7/`. The website's navigation bar includes the Brilliant logo, a search bar, and links for Home, Courses, and Classroom. The main content area is titled 'Computer Science & Programming' and features a course card for '1.2 Computer Science Fundamentals' (Level 1) with 14 lessons. To the right, a 'Tools of Computer Science' section lists three topics: 'Making Decisions', 'Searching for Solutions', and 'Parallelism', each marked with a green checkmark. The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the system clock as 22:41 on 24/08/2023.
